

Letters from Chatham County WWI Soldiers

Letters from Chatham soldiers published in local newspapers were an important source of war news for Chatham residents. While soldiers often could not say much about the battlefield, they did describe camp life, training, and their impressions of far-away lands.

DATE and SOURCE	DESCRIPTION
7 Nov 1917, CR	Letter from Camp Jackson ~ Lieut. James S. Milliken
5 Dec 1917, CR	Deadly Gasses in War ~ Lieut. J. S. Miliken
20 Jun 1918, CR	Letters from Camp Jackson ~ James H. Webster, J. N. Eubanks
27 Jun 1918, CR	Letter from Diffie Phillips
12 Sep 1918, CR	Letter from Sgt. J. O. Harmon in France
26 Sep 1918, CR	Soldier Letters ~ Walter S. Hackney, W. R. Straughan, Pvt. Clarence M. Dezern, Pvt. Sam Griffin
24 Oct 1918, SCG	Letters from Boys Over There ~ Cpl. Tom W. Goldston, Sgt. Jack Gilbert
31 Oct 1918, CR	Letter from J. Norwood Eubanks ~ A Day at Camp Hancock
31 Oct 1918, CR	Letter from Jack Lanius ~ Notes on Nathaniel Hill and Brodie Fearington
12 Dec 1918, CR	Chatham County Soldier News ~ Cpl. Jack Lanius, Marvin Dezern, David B. Moore, Sgt. M. D. Burns, Norwood Eubanks, Cpl. John E. Boone, Victor Harris, Colin Pattishall, Walter Glenn, Lieut. Jesse F. Milliken, Clyde Burns, Victor Johnson, Charles Moore
26 Dec 1918, CR	Letter from Pvt. Willie W. Lutterloh to Mother