Join volunteers from the Chatham County Historical Association on November 4 to enjoy a hearty breakfast or lunch of country ham, bacon, biscuits, gravy, grits, pancakes, eggs, and beverage.

Also from 9 to 1, many unique items will be on display and available for silent auction bids. Here are just a few of the auction items:

- a mahogany door and memento bricks from the pre-fire Chatham County Courthouse
- footballs and basketballs from both NCSU and UNC, signed by coaches
- Frieda Lin Spa Gift Certificate for five and Glam Makeover Gift Certificate for three
- an antique cotton scale with pea weights
- local honey
- a Southern Supreme cookbook, Reflections and Recipes
- gift certificates from several local businesses, including Hilary Graves Photography
- and a variety of CCHA publications, prints, and holiday ornaments.

Do a little holiday shopping after your meal, or come just for the auction. The auction will close at 1pm. Winning bidders present can pay with cash, credit card, or check and take their items. Winners not present will be contacted and may pick up items and pay with cash or check at the Chatham Historical Museum during regular hours.

Proceeds will help CCHA restore a mid-1800s smokehouse and return it to the Agriculture and Conference Center property where it stood for more than 150 years. There it will serve as an educational feature honoring Chatham's agricultural history.

Tickets can be purchased online with a credit card or PayPal. (PayPal membership is not required for credit card purchases.) We'll email the tickets to you.
