RED CROSS
DEPARTMENT

BY MISS ALLIE PEOPLES.

—Tinfoil is needed!— Every-body will please save all the tinfoil for the Red Cross. Large or small quantities wanted.

Tinfoil Needed

12 Sep 1918, The Chatham Record

During World War I, governments demanded large shipments of aluminum for light strong airframes. Production could not keep up with demand so recycling was encouraged.
