

Chatham Photos Need ID

Can You Help?

Can you help identify the building and/or people in the following photos? Mitchell and Ronnie Buckner found these in an attic on Plainfield Church Rd. and have offered them, along with some other interesting items, to the Chatham County Historical Association. These were found in Albright Township, but may or may not originate there.

We've zoomed in on some of these to make faces more clear. If you can identify the building or any of the people, please let us know by sending us an email to history@chathamhistory.org. Let us know which photo you have info about (by number) and describe which person you can identify. This is your chance to save some Chatham County history. Help us if you can!

PHOTO #1: What is this building? A schoolhouse? A church? We'll be grateful for any hints! Found in Albright Township.

See next photos for zoom to identify people.

PHOTO #2: Left side zoom. Still difficult, we know, but let us know if you have any idea who anyone in the photo might be. Or what the group might be—Sunday School class? School class?
