

Horton High School Yearbooks Added to Digital Collection

Two of Horton High School's yearbooks have been added to the Chatham County Yearbook Collection!

The yearbook project is a collaboration with our partners--the Chatham County Libraries and the North Carolina Digital Heritage Center. Donated yearbooks "age in" at 50 years, so these yearbooks qualified for addition in 2020. These are the first Horton yearbooks to be digitized in our collection.

1970 Horton Yearbook: Creations '70

The Horton Thunderbolts yearbook covers the years 1935 to 1970 and contains photos and information on faculty, staff, students and alumni. It's a fantastic resource.

Also added was the 1970 Horton Yearbook, Creations '70.

Do you have a yearbook from a Chatham County school gathering dust or packed away somewhere? Consider sharing it with others by making it a part of the collection at one of Chatham County's libraries. If you have Chatham County school yearbooks that you are willing to donate, you can bring them to the Chatham Historical Museum during Museum hours, drop off at the check-out desk at one of the Chatham County Libraries, or contact us at history@chathamhistory.org and we'll arrange a way to collect them. Help us fill gaps and bring the collections up-to-date. Thanks!
