

CHATHAM HISTORICAL MUSEUM RECEIVES
2019 MUSEUM AWARD
FROM THE NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY OF HISTORIANS

The Chatham Historical Museum has been awarded a North Carolina Society of Historians Museum Award for valuable contributions made toward the collection, preservation, and perpetuation of North Carolina history. The judges unanimously commended the officers, directors, members, volunteers, and visitors of the Museum for their foresight, hard work and dedication to preserving Chatham County history. CCHA President Lee Sullivan accepted the award at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Society of Historians on October 12, 2019.
