PITTSBORO . . .
 Rich in history, Pittsboro was founded in 1770 and was among the first ten towns in North Carolina to receive its charter of incorporation. Chatham County was named after Sir William Pitt, Earl of Chatham, and formed in 1770. Pittsboro or Pittsborough, as it was first called, was named after his son, William Pitt, the younger. First settled by the Scotch-Irish and English, Pittsboro boasts of many fine, old homes dating back to Colonial and ante-bellum days.
